Robert Thomson is a Senior Attorney at Kearney, McWilliams & Davis, PLLC. Mr. Thomson practices in estate planning, probate, and business transactions. He is an alumnus of the University of Louisiana-Monroe and received the Juris Doctor degree from South Texas College of Law-Houston in 2012.

Mr. Thomson's focused interests include estate planning for business owners and high net-worth individuals and families, complex probate matters, business structuring, and asset protection planning.

During law school, Mr. Thomson clerked in the legal department of a global Fortune 500 company, where he drafted the model LLC operating agreement for use in most of the company's many wholly owned subsidiary LLCs. Additionally, during this time Mr. Thomson assisted with a multi-billion-dollar merger, as well as a multi-national tax reorganization. This experience led to a lifelong interest in the development and proper management of complex business entity structures.

Mr. Thomson has also served for many years in the Texas Army National Guard, including several overseas deployments. He was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for his service in Afghanistan.

He lives in Willis with his wife, Charlene, and their three children. Mr. Thomson is an accomplished musician and plays trumpet in Montgomery Community Band. He also directs the orchestra at Mims Baptist Church, where he also plays trumpet.

Mr. Thomson is licensed in Texas and in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas. Mr. Thomson is based in the Houston office of Kearney, McWilliams & Davis, PLLC.
